

GL assessment schedule

Dear Parents,

We are pleased to inform you that we are ready with all requirements to conduct the GL Assessments starting next week. As these assessments are designed to measure natural cognitive abilities, no prior study or revision is required.

Please note that some sections will include listening tasks. Therefore, we request that learners bring their own labeled earphones or headphones (with a 3.5mm jack) on the day of their assessment.

Once the assessments are completed, detailed reports will be shared with you. These will provide a clear overview of your child's cognitive profile and offer guidance on how you can support their learning journey at home.

GL Assessment schedule for administering test series:
